About Our Program

"if every saint has a past then every criminal has a future"...Mahatma Gandhi

Juvenile delinquency refers to the antisocial or criminal activity of the child (below 16 years of age for boys and 18 years for girls) which violates the law. In true context, that same activity would have been a crime if it was committed by the adult. Juvenile delinquency is a gateway to adult crime. Today, it has become a topic of great concern and needs to be discussed. Hence this Seminar enlightens the audience about the Violation of law by a child is called Juvenile Delinquency. Delinquency is an antisocial and criminal behaviour committed by a person who is under the age of 18; that is, who is not an adult. Juvenile delinquency is also called delinquency. When a person reaches adulthood, antisocial and criminal behaviour done by him can be said as a crime. Thus, we can say that juvenile delinquency is the child and adolescent version of the crime.

The National Seminar will be focused on Causes of delinquent behaviour among juveniles generally peer influence. Childhood psychological trauma, violence, imitation of criminal authorities, etc
